FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2012

LSCC TO OFFER FALL LIFELONG LEARNING COURSES IN ART, PHOTOGRAPHY AND FINANCIAL PLANNING

Leesburg, Fla. – Lake-Sumter Community College’s Continuing Education Department will feature Lifelong Learning courses in Colored Pencil, Portraiture, Photography and Retirement Planning this Fall. All classes are open to the public.

The first art class, Portraiture, will be held Wednesday evenings, September 19 – October 24, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Students will learn to create successful portraits in the medium of their choice.

The Colored Pencil course will then meet Wednesday evenings, October 31 – December 12 (excluding November 21), from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. Participants in this class will discover the world of illustration with Prismacolor colored pencils and learn techniques such as cross-hatching and burnishing.

Illustrator Lew Clayton will teach both art classes at the Leesburg Campus, and they will cost $79 each.

The Photography course will be held Wednesday evenings on the Leesburg Campus this September 26 – October 3 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Instructor George Pieper will help students develop a photographic eye through a variety of lessons and photo assignments. The class will cost $69, and students are welcome to use any digital camera with at least 4 megapixels.

The South Lake Campus in Clermont will feature the course Retirement Planning Today twice in October. Community members can take the class on either Thursday evenings, October 4 and 11, or Tuesdays, October 16 and 23, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Certified Financial Planner David Bilka will teach attendees effective retirement strategies for long-term financial success.

“We are delighted to offer a variety of fun, affordable and informative classes each semester so that members of our community can enjoy education for a lifetime,” said Cathy Green, Assistant Director of Continuing Education at LSCC.

Interested participants can contact the Continuing Education Department at (352) 365-3556 or Coned@lscc.edu for further information or to receive a flyer and registration form.

###